

MAKING OREGON
VITAL FOR ELDERS

“Opening Your Culture Change Toolbox”

A Resource Fair for Providers Seeking Tools for the Journey

April 23, 2009

1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Abernethy Center, 606 15th St., Oregon City, OR 97045 503.722.9400

Join Oregon culture change pioneers at a resource fair designed to introduce culture change tools, share our knowledge and continued endeavors, and celebrate our accomplishments.

You'll meet Lori Silverman from Portland State University's Professional Development Center, who will present practical information on how adults learn and change, and how you can apply this information to the culture change process. You'll have the opportunity to examine examples of books, DVDs and other tools to help educate your staff, residents and families about culture change, and to help guide you in the journey toward a transformed organizational culture. Learn how you can access culture change-related books, videos and more from the Oregon Geriatric Education Center, and meet with your neighbors who use this valuable resource. You'll also get a sneak peek at AARP's campaign, "Strengthening Oregon's Long-term Care System – Independence, Choice and Dignity."

Be one of the first to log on to M.O.V.E.'s new website and become familiar with this resource! Find out how you can get up to date information about conferences and events, news about the culture change movement, and resources and tools to support your goals.

And you won't want to miss your chance to enter our drawings for some exciting door prizes!

M.O.V.E. gratefully acknowledges the support of our sponsor for this event:
